Dear Dr Weizmann,

I am sorry I did not make myself sufficiently clear in the note I gave to Gravitky. It was not my intention that you yourself should give an account of your efforts in the Huleh matter. This is, of course, our duty. All I wanted was that you should briefly summarize your views on the importance of the scheme itself.

You may have seen the semi-official statement we gave to the press. It appeared in all our dailies here and the gist of it was cabled abroad. Your name, and the role you played, are mentioned there - I trust in an appropriate form.

With regard to Mrs Weizmann, Thursday morning is packed with meetings and appointments and in the afternoon I am busy with some people
