My dear Dr. Friedenwald,

Very many thanks for your kindness in sending me a photostat copy of a note of mine you have found in your files. It amused me greatly to read it and left me wondering what was the end of the story: were the horses actually supplied and on what kind of a trip were they used? Anyhow, I will cherish the note as a memento from you.

I write this on the eve of my return to Israel and I take this opportunity of wishing you and your daughter all the best. Are you not coming to visit us again?

Yours sincerely,

M. Sharett.
