responsive and appreciative audience and he had it off wonderfully together.
I think this is the best letter you've

Dear Regina, the picture doesn't show me blushing but I can assure you that I did blush on reading the fantastic description. Nevertheless, ~~the~~ it was by far the best speech I made in the U.S. and one of the best I had ever made anywhere. It began with a tribute to you & Goldie. I opened by saying that it was my very first visit to Milwaukee but, curious as it might seem, I had for many years been most intimately connected with the Milwaukee Jewish community - certainly more than with any other in the USA - thanks to two daughters of Milwaukee I then told them about you - how you came out 27 years ago and how you had worked all these years; and then about
