Moshe Sharett Israeli Foreign Ministry Jerusalem

Excellency news of your resignation has aroused reports of a crisis in Israeli foreign policy. In behalf of many hundreds of newspaper clerks world wide I respectfully submit the following questions.

- 1) Do you foresee any drastic change in Israeli foreign policy regarding Arab and Western states and if so, how ?
- 2) Do you consider your 'moderation' policy was successful?
- 3) Would you please comment in detail on any policy differences with Premier Ben Gurion ?

Sincerely, John Martin, Foreign Director
