Joseph Alsop in column "Israel's meaning" stresses people's determination and country's development, says Israelis believe in miracul because have accomplished miracles. Grim courage and ruthless self-denial make Israel intensely admirable as human accomplishment but also as highly intractable as political fact. Says Israelis "will not behave as many Western policy makers think they should because that's not their nature and one must add they only exist today because it is not their nature".

World University Service Organization cancelled plans hold annual meeting in Indonesia because Indonesia refused grant visas to delegates from Israel.
