

3/8/38

0019 1110079

FUNERAL OF DR. EIG IN JERUSALEM

TRIBUTES TO UNIVERSITY LECTURER

Dr. Alexander Eig, Lecturer in Applied Botany at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, who died on Saturday after a long illness, was laid to rest yesterday morning at the Mount of Olives Cemetery.

The funeral which left from his house in Beth Hakerem was attended by relatives, members of the Board and Senate of the University, members of the staff of the Department of Botany, representatives of the National institutions members of the Beth Hakerem Committee, and students.

The funeral procession passed the house of the Beth Hakerem Committee and went up to the Teachers' Training School, where a eulogy was delivered by the Rector of the Hebrew University, Dr. H. Bergman, on behalf of the University Senate.

The body was then placed in an omnibus and mourners followed in cars to the Hadassah Hospital where Dr. J. ... of the University, ... Jewish Agency, ... of the ...

DOC 05175

APR 1938