ZIONIST COUNCIL

THE meeting of the Zionist Council to be held in London next week will be one of the most important ever held, and in anticipation of it prominent Zionists are proceeding to the British capital. Mr. Shertok and Mr. Ben Zvi have already left Palestine and a full attendance is expected of the other members from Palestine. The centre of gravity thus shifts in the public eye from Jerusalem to England. The meeting will open on Armistice Day perhaps a good omen.
