My dear Regina,

This is to introduce Batya of Yagur, my brother's sister-in-law, coming for a visit to the U.S.A. in her husband's company.
She is a real dear, to my mind a saintly person, for she has brought up her late sister's three children in addition to her own four kids. You can imagine how deeply we all feel indebted to her and how anxious we are that she should receive, on the occasion of her trip to America, all the kind attention she so richly deserves.
